Customs Duty and Customs Surcharge will also be waived for
- Private businesses; and
- Private individuals
However, a Customs Administrative Fee of 5% will be paid in full.

Building materials and furnishing are exempted for the purpose of facilitating the recovery and reconstruction process through the repair, reconstruction and refurbishing of their buildings.

There is an application form that must be completed and proof of damages must be attached. Forms are available at the Customs Main Office.

There is also a fine involved for anyone who makes a false statement on their application or produces false supporting documentation.

That person would have committed an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of $10 000EC or 6 months imprisonment.

The exemption period is from 6th September, 2017 until 31st December, 2017.

Travis Carty (Mr)
Comptroller of Customs

Ps. Please see attached list
Anguilla Customs Department
Customs House
Public Notice
November 3, 2017

The Customs Department would like to inform the general public of the Customs Duty (Exemption) (Hurricane Irma Relief) (Amendment) Regulations and Customs Duty Exemption) (Hurricane Irma Relief) (No 2) Regulations 2017.

In the Customs Duty (Exemption) (Hurricane Irma Relief) (Amendment) Regulations, 2017, provision has been made to include, vehicle windows and chain saws.

This falls under the Private Relief importation which is defined as any good imported by an individual which is not for resale. Goods which had been included in the first exemption were

- Medicine
- Generators
- Batteries
- Food and clothes relief, sent by friends or relations.

This exemption expires on December, 14th 2017.

Hurricane Irma impacted Anguilla on September 6, 2017 as a record breaking storm causing wide spread damage. As a result the Government of Anguilla has granted Customs Duty exemptions to facilitate in the rebuilding and reconstruction process.

Customs (Duty Exemption) (Hurricane Irma Relief (No 2) Regulations 2017.

Customs Duty and Customs Surcharge will be waived for
- Churches, benevolent societies and community organizations